

Kristin A. Pelletier Drives Away with Two Awards in 34th Telly Competition

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL (July. 10, 2013) – The Telly Awards has awarded Kristin A. Pelletier with two Bronze awards in the 34th Annual Telly Awards for her work in pieces titled “Preventing Crime Pays” and “Caring for David.”

“Preventing Crime Pays” (2013) received a Bronze Telly for Film/Video – Social Responsibility. Created for the Crime Stoppers of Broward County, this production illustrates the importance of community involvement in reporting and preventing crime. The other winner, “Caring for David,” is a pharmaceutical production that won a Bronze Telly in the Employee Communications category. With these two awards, Pelletier has won nine Telly awards, to date.

“Credit is due to the entire production team as well as our clients on both projects,” said Pelletier. “The videos were truly formed from partnerships among a host of crew members, cast and clients. With solid direction and input we received from our clients, this was a collaborative effort that resulted in a win for everyone.”

“The Telly Awards has a mission to honor the very best in film and video,” said Linda Day, Executive Director of the Telly Awards. “This accomplishment illustrates a production team’s creativity, skill, and dedication to their craft and serves as a testament to great film and video production.”

The Telly Awards was founded in 1979 and is the premier award honoring outstanding local, regional, and cable TV commercials and programs, the finest video and film productions, and online commercials, video and films.
